

Sent: Wednesday, December 06, 2006 7:48 PM

To: Hodge, Diego

Subject: Hola!

I am truly grateful for everything. With all your comings/going with the job you did an excellent job at communicating. I don't think I've come across anyone as prompt and concise as yourself. Me, I'm the typical leave home just in time to get to work kinda guy (and I only live 8 miles right now and I'm still late from time to time). I'm not certain how many other client cases you're currently balancing; however, throughout this entire process, I never felt like I was second to anyone else. I don't think this process, where some things couldn't be avoided, could have gone anymore smoothly. I see why your name is so well known and it's obvious that you're well respected by your peers and others in your industry. I'm thankful I had this opportunity to work with you and will most certainly continue to pass along the www.renovationmp.com web address to all who find themselves in a similiar or my very own situation where home ownership is concerned.

Keep up the good work! I've told Eddie several times. Your gift will make room you.

Thanks again,

Alonzo Jones